

Position Statement
on Patient Choice of Insurance Company to Bill
When Covered by Several Companies
(Approved by the Board of Directors January 1999)

The American Academy of Dermatology supports legislation at the Congressional level to make changes in ERISA that would allow patients with more than one insurance coverage to choose the order of billing to their insurance companies. In addition, the Academy is supportive of any such efforts by the American Medical Association in this area.