

5 reasons to See a Dermatologist for Microneedling.

When you see a board-certified dermatologist instead of using an at-home microneedling kit, you get these benefits:

See more significant and long-lasting results.

Receive treatment tailored to your needs.

Have the right number of treatments.

Prevent infection and irritation to your skin (possible with at-home kits).

Avoid making the condition worse (possible with at-home kits).

